

Outdoor Recreation

San Bernardino County is all about outdoor recreation and adventure! From relaxing to rugged, city folk love to escape to SBC and hit those famous hiking trails, year-round fishing, skiing, rock climbing, off-roading, kayaking, swimming, wildlife viewing, mountain biking, stargazing and camping in abundance. The San Bernardino County's amazing regional and national parks are at the hub of outdoor recreation in Southern California.

The Off-Highway Vehicle System on the San Bernardino National Forest is one of the best in Southern California. A variety of experiences and a large number of miles are available for 4-wheel driving, ATV, UTV and motorcycle use. The San Bernardino National Forest OHV system is comprised of designated routes and trails primarily in Cajon Pass, North Lake Arrowhead, North and East of Big Bear, and West of Idyllwild.
