

ADVENTUROUS TRAVELERS

THINGS TO DO

The mountains and deserts of Southern California boast incredible adventures for thrill-seekers. Nature plays a large part in these exciting activities.

Horseback ride in Big Bear across the Pacific Crest Trail with Baldwin Lake Stables. They offer rides through all seasons starting at 7 years old. Solo, couples, families and groups are all welcome.

Ski in SoCal at one of five ski resorts every winter: Big Bear Mountain Resort, Snow Valley Mountain Resort, Mountain High Ski Resort, Snow Summit and the Rim Nordic Ski Area.

Rock climb in Joshua Tree National Park with Cliffhanger Guides - dedicated to providing the most personalized, safe and fun rock climbing adventures in Joshua Tree National Park, Zipline in Wrightwood with Ziplines at Pacific Crest, the only zipline course in Southern California built naturally into the trees.

Hike the Sand to Snow Monument with a guide from the Mojave Desert Land Trust.

Camp in the mountains and deserts at your leisure, 365 days a year.

WHERE TO EAT

Whether you rent a vacation cabin or bring food for camping, there's a selection of Jensen's, Ralphs and other great grocery stores at your disposal

PLACES TO STAY

Pirate Cove Resort is situated along the Colorado River in Needles at the border of California, Arizona and Nevada. This exceptional recreational resort offers full-service amenities for visitors including: restaurant for breakfast, lunch and dinner, outdoor and indoor dining and bars, two-story beachfront & marina view cabins featuring king and queen beds along with two baths, full kitchen, washer & dryer, beach patio with BBQ grill and attached balcony that overlooks the waterfront. If RVs are your thing, they also offer a premium full-service waterfront RV park - plus boating and swimming all along the Colorado River.

Pitch a tent, park your RV or rent an Airbnb for your personalized and customized adventure trip!

