

ROMANTIC RETREAT

THINGS TO DO

Fall in love with the mountains and deserts of San Bernardino County. Picture fireplaces, cozy cabins in the woods, desert sunsets and lots of lounging.

WHERE TO EAT

After a day of skiing at Mountain High, beer-lovers must stop by Wrightwood Brewing Company for a pint of local ale.

For a truly romantic old-school dining experience, book a booth at The Pines Lakefront in Big Bear, an upscale lakeside restaurant serving steak, seafood, pasta & wine in classic surroundings.

The Restaurant at 29 Palms Inn is the place to indulge in fabulous cocktails, hearty fare and the perfect desert sunset over an oasis - yes, a real oasis.

PLACES TO STAY

Lake Arrowhead Resort and Spa, Autograph Collection - the only resort property in the San Bernardino Mountains, this mountain hotel was made for romance. With a stunning full-service spa overlooking Lake Arrowhead and private beach lake access for cozy nights of snuggling outdoors, couples won't want to leave this upscale lodge for lovers.

Pine Rose Cabins - this special cabin property offers the privacy of a mountain cabin with the amenities of a hotel. Pine Rose regularly holds weddings and offers romance 24/7 with their variety of cottages, large and small - just minutes away from Lake Arrowhead Village.

If you love the desert and your lover loves the desert too, then book your stay at Campbell House in 29 Palms. Originally built in 1925 to resemble a Philadelphia-style mansion, this collection of historic cottages is set on 25 secluded acres, surrounded by towering Washingtonia fan palms and lush gardens
